Welcome to the 33rd Dundee Mountain Film Festival (2015)

The Dundee Mountain Film Festival is the UK's longest continuous running mountain film festival. It showcases an international programme of speakers, as well as award winning films and exhibitions, all held in the Bonar Hall, Dundee. 2015 will present two evening programmes on 26th and 27th, and one full day programme on the 28th Nov, all featuring films and personal appearances. The 27th and 28th will have a full supporting exhibition of art, photography, trade and voluntary organisations stands and displays.

Come and enjoy this unforgettable opportunity to see, hear, and experience outstanding stories of courage, adventure, and exploration.

BONAR HALL, Park Place, Dundee. DD1 4HN Thursday (26th) Eve Ticket only

This special evening will feature John Burns performing his acclaimed play "Mallory – Beyond Everest" which presents a unique perspective on the disappearance of Mallory on Mount Everest. The play will be preceded by a screening of the thought provoking film "K2 and the Invisible Footmen" an in-depth look at the life of porters whose efforts make them worthy of recognition as the true heroes of mountaineering.

BONAR HALL, Park Place, Dundee. DD1 4HN Friday (27th) Eve Ticket Only

The evening opens with five films from the Banff World Tour including "Valley Uprising: the Golden Age" which chronicles a particularly amazing period of climbing in Yosemite. John Porter himself a mountaineer of exceptional experience and ability will describe the remarkable achievements of climbing legend and friend Alex MacIntyre.

BONAR HALL, Park Place, Dundee. DD1 4HN Saturday (28th) Morning Ticket Only

Four films, four different challenges all in the best of Scotland. David Munro will describe the exploits and outstanding achievements of William Speirs Bruce - Scotland's 'forgotten polar hero', who was in his day the world's most experienced polar explorer.

Saturday (28th) Afternoon Ticket Only

The second programme of the Banff World Tour. No less than seven high action films screening "way out" activities not for the faint hearted. Jen Randall acclaimed freelance filmmaker of climbing documentaries who has strong connections with Dundee will "tell her story".

Saturday (28th) Evening Ticket Only

Climbing, Skiing, Rowing, Flying, in both remote, and not so remote environments. Five films to challenge the norm. Leo Houlding is one of Britain's top climbers and among the best in the world. Described as "the face of modern British adventure" Leo will chronicle some of the highs and lows of his career as a full time adventure climber illustrated with edge of seat photography.

Downstairs Foyer (Free admission)

Exhibitions of art and photography by Jennifer Wilcox and Malcom Webster.

Ustinov Room (Free admission)

- Trade and voluntary group stands will fill the Ustinov Room catering for the interests of every Festival goer on Friday (27th) evening, and all day Saturday (28th).

Upstairs Foyer (Free admission)

- There will be book sales and signings by the speakers at the end of each programme.

19.00 K2 AND THE INVISIBLE FOOTMEN (Strong language)

Film 2015 (52 mins) Director/Producer: Iara Lee

Editor/Cinematographer: Jawad Sharif

This thought provoking film chronicles the lives of those who make possible ascents of the world's tallest mountains, including Pakistani porters and Nepalese sherpas. Amid breathtaking scenery, the film depicts the everyday sacrifices of these people and the courage of those indigenous climbers who choose to return to K2 in spite of past tragedies. The film also follows the first official all-Pakistani climbing team, made up of former porters which successfully summited in K2 in 2014.

19.55 Interval 30 minutes : Refreshments

20.25 JOHN BURNS: "MALLORY – BEYOND EVEREST"

Play (50mins) Author/Actor: John Burns.

Directors: Melissa Paterson,

Catherine McNeil

George Mallory and Sandy Irvine vanished into the mist high on Everest in 1924, they were never seen alive again. Were they the first men to climb the world's highest mountain? In this dramatic one man play, John Burns asks one question. If George Mallory had survived what demons would have haunted him?.
