DUNDEE MOUNTAIN FILM FESTIVAL 1999 PROGRAMME

Since 1983 the Dundee Festival has attracted large audiences to Dundee and has established itself as a premier event in the calendar of many who enjoy the mountain environment. Many thanks to all those who took the time and effort to fill in the questionnaire last year. It has given the committee guidance as to what YOU, the audience want for many seasons to come.

This year will be a stimulating celebration of mountain areas in various parts of the world, but a strong Scottish flavour will be maintained. We welcome IAN EVANS, IAN MITCHELL & JACK LAW, and the return of JIM CURRAN. The Saturday morning feature will be presented by GRAHAM LITTLE, and Saturday afternoon there will be an opportunity to view a wide variety of films.

Saturday evenings have provided enthralling experiences over the years and this year is no exception. The 1999 Festival welcomes AL HINKES who is no stranger to Dundee. He will be joined by DAVID THOMASSON.

As usual the advice is to get your tickets early and avoid disappointment!

Tickets also available from the following Dundee retailers:- Tiso, Black's, and David Low.

Friday 26th NOVEMBER

7:00 pm - 10:00 pm Ian Evans starts with the first public multimedia presentation of "Magic of the Munros", this is linked to the publication of Irvine Butterfield's new book a few days ahead of the Festival - Jim Curran will then describe his climbing and filming experiences on Orkney's "Old Man of Hoy" including excerpts of Catherine Destivelle's ascent. The evening concludes with Ian Mitchell and Jack Law giving a presentation including narration, slides, music and songs based on Ian's book "Scotland's Mountains Before the Mountaineers".

THIS EVENING IS PART-SPONSORED BY TISO, DUNDEE

SATURDAY 27th NOVEMBER

2:00pm - 5:15 pm films screened will be:-

Bhutan - "The Last Shangri-La" award winner at Telluride and Banff Festivals, "Kayak Islanda" and "Ice in Iceland" both made in Iceland, "Manolo", "Pure", and "Ode to Avalanche" (all by agreement with Banff Mountain Film Festival - Canada) excerpts from "The Easy Life" and "Living for the Weekend" both about the Glasgow University Climbing Club

The prize-winning from the Festival Photo-Competition

7:00 pm - 10:00 pm Al Hinkes

will make his presentation
"On Both Sides of the Camera!"

It will include part of his "Challenge 8,000" slide lecture plus excerpts of films made on Nanga Parbat, K2, and Makalu in which he features as climber and also as filmmaker.

David Thomasson will join Al for part of Saturday evening . David has worked with Al since 1995 as Cameraman/Producer/Director of films such as "Climbing K2", and the 4 part "Death Zone" series.
